To Whom It May Concern

I have known and worked with Rean Kirby over a period of 12 years in my capacity as a Certified Financial Planner with Benwest Investment Services.

During that period I have had Rean advise numerous clients in regards to the purchase of direct property investments. At all times I have had extremely complimentary feedback from these clients as to Rean's professionalism, honesty, and knowledge, in what can sometimes be a complicated area for the in-experienced investor.

Rean has always been ready and able to help me with my clients' requests for assistance, and I have never felt un-easy in introducing him, and having him deal direct with my clients, as I know that he will always give them the best advice, and deal with my clients in the same professional manner that they expect from me.

I was first attracted to Compass due to the breadth of research and supportive material presented by Rean, as well as Rean's knowledge of the benefits of property investment being an important component of an investor's Portfolio, and as a Certified Financial Planner himself, his ability to understand, interpret, and discuss with a client those benefits.

Rean has been sourcing, recommending, and advising investors on property investing for over 15 years, over which time he has acquired much of the technical and demographic knowledge needed to give good, sound, and honest advice in this area.

Not only do I have the highest regard for Rean's business professionalism, but I have also had the pleasure of associating with him and his family on many social occasions, and know that his personal life is one of integrity, and I hold him in the highest regard.

Benwest Investment Services uses Rean's specialist knowledge on property matters for all Authorised Representatives.

Yours sincerely,
